

Sherrie R. Savett has set new precedents throughout her life as an attorney and community leader. Earning her B.A. and J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania, she has written numerous articles on complex litigation in professional publications, lectures nationally, and has settled some of the nation's largest securities suits. She is a nationally recognized commercial and class-action litigator. She is a member of the management committee of the law firm Berger Montague and Chair Emeritus of the firm.

Sherrie's volunteer leadership is vast. She was a member of the national cabinet of State of Israel Bonds and served as Chairperson of the Southeastern Pennsylvania State of Israel Bonds Campaign. She was President and Board Chair of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia for a three year term that spanned 2011-2014. She continues to serve on its Board of Directors and Trustees and is currently its volunteer campaign chair. She has recently become a member of the Alliance which supports the PJ Library program nationally and worldwide and enables hundreds of thousands of Jewish children to receive monthly Jewish themed children's books. She was recently honored by the Jewish Learning Venture for her philanthropy and contributions to the Jewish people locally and around the world.

Her leadership as a member of the national board and as Chair of the Philadelphia/Delaware regional board of Americans for Ben Gurion University has added a direct connection to Israel to her philanthropic life.

She is committed to insuring a bright future for the Jewish people which allows them to flourish in a safe and secure world.
